Gentlemen:

Confirming telephone conversation with, I think, your Mr. Geary, this morning, I am advising you that commercial truck N. Y. Registration 350845 owned by Samuel Adler, 447 E. 133rd Street, New York City and driven by Nathan Levine, ran into my wife's Plymouth sedan at about 9.15 Tuesday morning, December 18th, on the Boston Post Road at the intersection of East Chester Road. This was caused by both cars stopping at a red light. The back of my car was severely damaged; the bumper broken and the springs and the framework twisted. I reside at 137-17 Franklin Avenue, Flushing, Long Island, and the car may be either there or at the Clifford Dodge Motor Company, Flushing, from whom we bought the car, where it is being taken for a survey and estimate of the damage. When I receive this information I will communicate with you again. My office is at the above address and the business telephone is Audubon 3-4141 and my residence telphone is Flushing 9-2883 W.

Very truly yours,

HW:JG
